

Women's Inner Healing

Charm is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord shall be praised. Proverbs 31:30

“I thought that Dunklin was a men’s program. Why do they have a Women’s Inner Healing class?”

The Women’s Inner Healing class is designed to bring healing and more wholeness to the wives of the men who are in the program here at Dunklin. As we all know, it takes two halves to make a whole. For increased wholeness within a marriage each half must move toward wholeness. Through the Women’s Inner Healing class the Lord heals old hurts, frees from sin patterns and introduces each wife to new freedom. At the same time her husband is following a similar “cleaning up” process through the inner healing stage of his program. The end result is two strengthened individuals within a strengthened marriage. The overall purpose for the inclusion of the Women’s Inner Healing at Dunklin’s program has been realized! ~ Cinda Smith, Women’s Inner Healing Teacher

I was not really sure what to expect going into the Women’s Inner Healing class. To be quite honest, I was skeptical...I didn’t think I needed much healing, but was determined to be open. That was just it; “I” was determined. Through Inner Healing I learned that I find great comfort in being self-sufficient. My independence sometimes gets in the way of my relationship with the Lord. I am so grateful for Cinda and Peggy for allowing the Lord to use them to pour into my life. They not only ministered to me and encouraged me to be vulnerable, but they walked through the inner healing process with me each step of the way.

With the help of Cinda and Peggy and the support of the four amazing women in my inner healing cohort, the Lord freed me from the bondage of self-sufficiency. I now have a peace that I have not felt before, and an assurance that God will take care of me in every season of life. He will meet the needs of my family and me, and will use our darkest experiences to help others. Jeremiah 29:11 gives me hope for my future and the Lord recently provided me with another promise in Exodus 33:14 where He said, “I myself will go with you, and I will give you victory.” My husband, Lance, will graduate soon and we will get the opportunity to use the tools we have learned while at Dunklin. Our three sons, Landon, Logan and Laine, are already reaping the benefits and I have no doubt that our time at Dunklin has been instrumental in shaping them into the men they will one day become. Dunklin will always be a special place for us. ~ Dama Abshier with husband, Lance Dunklin’s Inner Healing class showed me that I needed healing in my life. God showed me that I needed to let go of all of the hurt in my past in order to have a complete walk with him. I was able to find peace and comfort and a better relationship with the Lord.

Through Inner Healing the Lord has done many different things with me. First, He has helped me to trust people and my husband once again. Second, He has helped me understand that no matter what happens He will always be there. Third, He has helped me walk through my past to feel the peace and love He is willing to offer. So now I feel at peace. The best way to describe the way it feels is this: imagine you are stuck under a brick house for many years and you pray about being free and you try to do what's right but you hold on to so much pain from your past. Then you let the Lord deal with it and lift the brick house off your shoulders. It's amazing. ~ Christie McCullers with husband, Brian

What the Lord has done in my life through Inner Healing class...He has shown me things that I didn't even know about myself and healed them. He has opened my eyes and my mind to see people and myself differently than I did before. He has shown me that He loves me unconditionally no matter what I have done or been through in the past. He has shown me how to love myself and others, no matter what I have done or what they have done. He has opened up my heart to receive love from others and myself. He has shown me that no matter what I look like or act like, He will always love me for who I am. He helped me get past my feelings about things and get down deep and to see what the real problem is, and to deal with it instead of stuffing it down and forgetting about it. ~ Jenna Nielsen with husband, Sha

When I was asked to assist in teaching the Women's Inner Healing class, I thought there must be some mistake! Don't they know that I, myself, am still in need of much healing? How on earth can I teach what I have yet to master myself? Well, I have realized that in ministry, your faith walk and your testimony are far more vital than having conquered your battles and learned to proficiently use all of the spiritual tools in your belt. My weaknesses are just the things the Lord uses to help others. I have also realized just how blessed and loved I am by the Lord, because He has given me this opportunity to go deeper with Him, learning far more in giving back than I did in receiving when I worked through the class. It is such a pleasure to work with the women and help them in seeking healing and a closer walk with Jesus, and I am humbled that the Lord would use me in this way. ~ Peggy Ribaud, Assistant Women's Inner Healing Teacher
